6. Superintendent's Report – Marc Thielman
  - A. Elementary school is running like a well-oiled machine. The winter music program is tomorrow night at 7 PM.
  - B. We are working on our fire alarm system upgrade.
  - C. Donkey Basketball [Shanon Rice presented], working on doing a free spaghetti feed before. The game will be on January 30. Tickets will be $9
7. Director of Student Services Report – Rozeanne Steckler
  - A. Committee for honors diploma has been set up and plans to meet soon.
  - B. Filed census for Special Education and we are currently at 26 students which is up a little. This is due to kids moving in or transferring to our district.
  - C. LBCC student enrollment day was really good. They are providing a lot of support for our high school students who are attending LBCC next term.
  - D. State testing season is coming. We have to send a letter to each family explaining about the tests which allows parents to opt out of testing their children.
8. Athletic Report – Tiffany Schreiber
  - A. New Hires are: Katie Sapp MS Girls Basketball
  - B. Resignations: Dave Smith HS Boys Basketball
  - C. Winter Sports Update:
    - i. HS Boys Basketball-6 boys are playing. By changing practice times we were able to only add one more player. The boys are struggling with their grades.
    - ii. MS Boys Basketball-Currently the boys have a 3-0 record. They are playing very well and have had very few grade problems.
    - iii. HS Girls Basketball-Currently there are 8 girls playing. First game is scheduled for Dec 15th.
    - iv. UPCOMING Events: December 17 the Varsity girls will be traveling to Klamath Falls. Attached you will find the information and schedule for the tourney.

9. Information Items –

- A. Congress just updated No Child Left Behind. The general gist is that things are up in the air. Things that continue: we are required to test 95% of students. Conversations have started in the superintendents’ groups around if we will continue to use Smarter Balance or if there are other options.

10. Discussion Items

A. Financial Reports –

- i. Katie Sapp talked about the Student Body accounts and where we have deficits. She is asking the board to help bring accounts that have been deficit for multiple years back into balance.

- B. Athletic Program – Aaron Schneider would like sit down with the Athletic Director and possibly a previous coach to come up with some athletic director and coach expectations. Jeff Davis and Linda Montanez offered to help.

- C. Superintendent Evaluation – Aaron Schneider will consolidate the information from all the board members and have the evaluation ready for next month’s meeting.

11. Action Items
